PAUL HASTINGS ADDS VALUE TO CLIENTS THROUGH CLIENTLINK

Los Angeles, California – March 23, 2017 – Leading international law firm Paul Hastings LLP is now using ClientLink, an online CLE platform, to make valuable CLE and training content available to its clients. Under a license from New Media Legal Publishing, Inc. (“NMLP”), all of the firm’s clients have unlimited access to these programs on demand at no charge.

Paul Hastings is using the ClientLink website to share with clients its own CLE and training content on topics presented by its attorneys and invited guest speakers, as well as CLE programs produced by NMLP. Currently, Paul Hasting’s clients can view presentations on securities litigation, dealing with whistleblowers in the workplace and negotiation ethics for lawyers, among many others.

“With ClientLink, Paul Hastings can make valuable CLE content available to their clients in a secure, easy to use, online environment,” said Holly Dormeyer, General Manager of NMLP.

In addition to offering value at no additional cost to their clients, ClientLink gives Paul Hastings’ clients the capability to watch the CLE programs from the comfort of their homes or offices in an online environment that is branded exclusively to the Firm. Users can access the videos whenever they have time, and wherever they are, including on video-enabled mobile devices.
