January 4, 2010 – New Media Legal Publishing is pleased to announce that it’s most recent live webcast – “Substance Abuse: A Lawyer-to-Lawyer Conversation” – is currently the most popular program on West LegalEdcenter (westlegaledcenter.com). This program was given as a live webcast on December 2, 2009, and is now available on demand through West LegalEdcenter.

“We’re extremely pleased to see our first substance abuse program at the top of West LegalEdcenter’s list of most popular CLE programs. Considering that West LegalEdcenter has more than 22,000 hours of CLE programming, it’s quite an accomplishment for this program to be rated No. 1,” said Zachary S. McGee, New Media Legal Publishing’s President.

The following is the program description and details on how to register for this program:

“Substance Abuse: A Lawyer-to-Lawyer Conversation”

Jim Heiting, President of the California State Bar (2005-2006), and Greg Dorst, an attorney who overcame addiction and now counsel other lawyers confronting substance abuse issues, share their true experiences, strength and hope to highlight the journey from chemical dependency to a life in recovery. Jim and Greg will explain and expose substance abuse as a real life problem experienced in many different forms by many attorneys.

Topics include:

- The nature of chemical dependency;
- Battling addiction and its effects on the practice of law;
- Potential disciplinary consequences for attorneys; and

- Resources available to California attorneys for assessment, referral, treatment and support for substance abuse problems.

This program is co-presented by The Other Bar. The Other Bar is a network of recovering lawyers and judges throughout California, dedicated to assisting others within the profession who are suffering from alcohol and substance abuse problems. The Other Bar is a private, non-profit corporation, was founded on the principle of anonymity and provides services in strict confidentiality. Participation in programs sponsored by The Other Bar is voluntary and open to all California lawyers, judges and law students.
