WILSON ELSER SIGNS ON FOR CLIENTLINK

Los Angeles, California – December 21, 2014 – Leading law firm Wilson Elser LLP is now using ClientLink, an online CLE platform, to make valuable CLE and training content available to policyholders of its client, Aon. Under a license from New Media Legal Publishing, Inc. (“NMLP”), certain of Aon’s policyholders have access to these programs on demand at no charge.

Wilson Elser is using the ClientLink website to share with Aon’s policyholders its own CLE and training content on topics presented by its attorneys and invited guest speakers, as well as CLE programs produced by NMLP. Currently, Aon’s policyholders can view presentations on cyber liability, claims handling procedures, employment litigation, multi-jurisdictional practice and ethics and negotiation ethics for lawyers, among many others.

“With ClientLink, Wilson Elser can make valuable CLE content available to Aon’s policyholders in a secure, easy to use, online environment,” said Holly Dormeyer, General Manager of NMLP.

In addition to offering value at no additional cost to their clients, ClientLink gives Aon’s policyholders the capability to watch the CLE programs from the comfort of their homes or offices in an online environment that is branded exclusively to Wilson Elser. Users can access the videos whenever they have time, and wherever they are, including on video-enabled mobile devices.
